For YOUTH and ADULTS
who live with disabilities and those who support them

This training designed to provide you tools to advocate for yourself, connect with others and gain leadership skills.....

Topics include:

- ✓ Speaking up about employment (a job) and other things important to you:
  - Knowing Yourself & Standing Up for Yourself
  - Communicating (effective and non-effective ways)
  - Solving Problems (individually and as a group)
  - Rights and Responsibilities
  - Self Determination and Being in the Community
- ✓ Learn to start or strengthen a local network group
- ✓ Plan next steps for training and leading others

Participant “all inclusive” fee = $575

If you receive SELF Waiver services, you may arrange to pay part ($260) through Participant Goods and Services. Contact Dana Charlton

Hosted by: Gallia County Board of DD and Jackson County Board of DD in collaboration with the Ohio Self Determination Association. Partially funded by the Ohio Developmental Disabilities Council under the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act.

Participant fee covers:

- Ally supporting the participant (lodging, food and training materials for both)
- Hotel room for 2 nights for both (2 to 4 people per sleeping room)
- Single room occupancy, if requested, adds an additional fee at ½ of the room cost.
- Breakfast and Lunch on days 2 and 3 and afternoon snacks. Dinner each evening is “on your own”.
- Access to all presentation slides, handouts and links to other information used during the training is provided each participant and ally.

You won't want to miss this training opportunity!

- ✓ Presented by trainers who live with a disability and are approved by the Council of Ohio Leaders (COOL) of the Ohio Self Determination Association (OSDA).
- ✓ Space for 30 individuals who live with a disability – each with an ally (family, staff or friend) who are trained with you and support you during the training. Ask a person to be your ally who will commit to assist you in local advocacy efforts, network with others and, if you choose, to share what you learn with others locally.
- ✓ Provides the practical, “how to” tools to be a self-advocate and leader in making choices and decisions about a job and how to live your life.
- ✓ Empowers people with disabilities, with support from families, friends and other connections to use leadership skills to take charge of their lives.
- ✓ Develops or strengthens local advocacy groups.
- ✓ Provides 18 continuing education credits to persons certified to work at a county board of DD and meets private provider certification training requirements of DODD.
- ✓ Uses a “train the trainer” approach, originally developed by the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, with funding from the Administration of Developmental Disabilities and is based on activities from their Speak Up Guide and their Road to Work Manual.
